

ILLINOIS ROUTE 159 PROBLEM STATEMENT

The transportation problem in the City of Collinsville along IL Route 159 is the flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic and safety within a highly urbanized and historically significant section of the community that promotes and sustains economic development and redevelopment of the Central Business District.