PRESS RELEASE
Construction Update

IL 127 in Clinton County

IL 127 Structure over Kaskaskia River south of Carlyle, IL – The Illinois Department of Transportation is pleased announce that the bridge on IL Route 127 over the Kaskaskia River south of Carlyle, IL will open to all traffic by the end of the work day today. Construction activity will still be ongoing without lane closures.

As early spring approaches, daytime lane closures will be required to complete installation of the final pavement markings.

The contractor on this project is Sangamo Construction Company of Springfield, IL. If you have any questions concerning this project, please contact Steve Putz, Supervising Field Engineer for the Illinois Department of Transportation, at (618) 346-3350.
