

Community Advisory Group (CAG) Roles and Responsibilities

Roles

A key part of our study process is the creation of a CAG. The group assists IDOT in ensuring:

- That the opinions of the broader community are shared with the IDOT project team.
- That information developed by the project team is distributed throughout the community.
- That the best possible solution is identified.

In carrying out these functions, the CAG plays an important role in defining the area's important features, identifying access preferences, and recognizing potential highway effects.

Who is represented on the CAG?

- Businesses including:
 - Gateway National Golf Links
 - Tank Trailer Cleaning
 - Gateway Motorsports Park
 - St. Louis Auto Shredding
- Government organizations including:
 - East-West Gateway Council of Governments
 - City of Madison
 - City of East St. Louis
 - Village of Fairmont City
 - St. Clair County
 - St. Clair County Transit District
- Homeowners

Responsibilities

CAG members will be expected to carry out the following responsibilities:

- Attend each CAG meeting and participate in Group discussion and activities.
- Participate openly and honestly, respecting the opinions of other Group members.
- Represent their organization, constituency, or broader community interests.

If you would like to be considered for membership on the CAG, please fill out an application and place it in the comment box.
