

PASSENGERS

ROUTE 855—PLAINFIELD EAST LOOP EXPRESS

SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENT & CARRIER CHANGE

EFFECTIVE MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2011

Beginning Monday, November 14, Route 855 will begin operating on the shoulder along portions of I-55. This activity is part of the Bus on Shoulder Demonstration Project. Please visit PaceBus.com for more information. Route 855 riders should look for large, coach buses with Pace Express branding. Routes that are a part of this project will have this symbol on the schedule:

Additionally, one morning trip on Route 855 will have a schedule adjustment. The trip that normally departs Plainfield at 6:17am will now depart at 6:13am, with adjustments at all timepoints between Plainfield and Michigan/Superior. Please see the updated schedule, dated November 14, 2011, for more details. All other morning trips will remain the same.

In addition, Route 855 will follow a new outbound schedule in the afternoon for all trips for arrivals at suburban park-n-rides. Departure times from downtown Chicago will remain the same.

Also, please note that beginning Monday, November 14, Pace Heritage Division will be the new operator for Route 855 and all lost-and-found inquiries should be directed to them at (815) 723-3259.

Updated timetables are available online at PaceBus.com.

Remove DV.SP 11/30/11

For More Information

Call the RTA Travel Information Center at (312) 836-7000

TTY (847) 364-5093

www.pacebus.com